
Program

Less-is-More Workshop
MPI for Human Development, Dec. 10-12, 2007

December 9

19:00 Dinner reception at the Harnack-Haus

December 10

09:00 – 09:30 Introduction
 Gerd Gigerenzer, MPI for Human Development

09:30 – 11:00 Why heuristics?
 Gerd Gigerenzer

11:00 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 13:00 Less-is-more in inductive inference
 Henry Brighton, MPI for Human Development

13:00 – 14:30 Lunch

14:30 – 16:00 Does decision quality increase or decrease with sample size?
 Klaus Fiedler, University of Heidelberg

16:00 – 16:30 Break

16:30 – 18:00 Poster session I

19:30 Dinner at Amrit, Schöneberg

December 11

- 09:30 – 11:00 Less structure is sometimes as effective as more structure
Laura Martignon, Pädagogische Hochschule Ludwigsburg
- 11:00 – 11:30 Break
- 11:30 – 13:00 Benefits of memory limits
Lael Schooler, MPI for Human Development
- 13:00 – 14:30 Lunch
- 14:30 – 16:00 Group Session I: Experiments in ecological rationality
Ana Sofia Morais & Henry Brighton, MPI for Human
Development
- 16:00 – 16:30 Break
- 16:30 – 18:00 Poster session II
- 19:30 Dinner at Luise, Dahlem

December 12

- 09:30 – 11:00 How to select one reason decision making strategies
Jörg Rieskamp, MPI for Human Development
- 11:00 – 11:30 Break
- 11:30 – 13:00 Group Session II: Experiments in ecological rationality
Ana Sofia Morais & Henry Brighton, MPI for Human
Development
- 13:00 – 14:15 Lunch
- 14:15 – 15:00 Concluding remarks
Gerd Gigerenzer
- 15:00 – 16:30 One-to-one meetings with faculty (arranged by students)
- 18:00 – 19:00 Visit to an art exhibition: Pop Art – From the 60s to today
Automobil Forum Unter den Linden
- 19:30 Dinner at Papa Pane, Mitte